

PSALM 91 - NPPV

New Personalized Paraphrase Version

I dwell in the shelter of the Most High,
so I rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
I say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."
Surely He will save me from the fowler's snare
and from the deadly pestilence.
He covers me with his feathers, and under his wings I find refuge;
His faithfulness is my shield and rampart.
I do not fear the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day,
nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness,
nor the plague that destroys at midday.
A thousand may fall at my side, ten thousand at my right hand,
but it will not come near me.
I will only observe with my eyes
and see the punishment of the wicked.
Since I say, "The Lord is my refuge,"
and I make the Most High my dwelling,
no harm will overtake me, no disaster
will come near me or my home.
For he commands His angels concerning me
to guard me in all my ways;
they will lift me up in their hands, so that I will not stumble. trip, —
fall, or even stub my toe.
I will tread on the lion and the cobra;
I will trample the great lion and the serpent.
The Lord says that because I love Him, He will rescue me;
He will protect me, for I acknowledge His name.
He will call on me, and I will answer him; He will be with me in trouble,
He will deliver me and honor me.
He will satisfy me with long life
and show me His salvation."
