

Ladies and Gentlemen,

John 3:20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd.

"Our system is collapsing in real time." – Tucker Carlson

"When all is exposed, 98% of Washington will fall." - Julian Assange

Demonic Warfare

Deuteronomy 6:12 Then beware lest thou forget the Lord ...

"Christianity, true Scriptural Christianity, has a tendency in the process of time to destroy itself. For wherever true Christianity spreads, it must cause diligence and frugality, which, in the natural course of things, must beget riches! And riches naturally beget pride, love of the world, and every temper that is destructive to Christianity. Wherever it generally prevails, it ultimately saps its own foundation." - John Wesley, 1789

This is where we are today. The church has lost its way. It has been self-destroyed by way of its God-given prosperity. It is the spiritual temperament of the Laodicean church of Revelation, they were "neither cold nor hot."

Revelation 3:17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

Consequently, Jesus threatens to "spue [them] out of [His] mouth." Jesus admonishes them to "*buy of me gold tried in the fire ...and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see."

Revelation 3:19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

As with the Laodiceans, many of our churches are complacent, blind, and lacking in spiritual discernment. Others are merely angry with men and the world. A few demonstrate a "righteous indignation." Yet, others are cowering in fear, afraid to challenge the "works of darkness."

This later camp believes that if they remain silent, the evil will pass them by. This is nothing new. Bonhoeffer could not rouse the fearful and silent German church in his day. It did not turn out so well for them.

Proverbs 17:28 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise ...

Esther 4:14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

I am not nearly as frustrated with the lost, as I am with fellow Christians, and especially, the Pastors. The lost do what the lost do. They are lost, for crying out loud. Sadly, they are moving into our churches and bringing demonic worldly views with them. The Church is compromising with the lost world.

The Oxford Safe Churches project, run by a coalition of LGBTQ+ organizations and Churches in Oxford, have published their first faith report, titled 'Attitudes to Queer Christians in Oxford Churches.' The report, published, uses a 'traffic light' system to rank the LGBTQ+ inclusivity.

2 Timothy 4:3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; ... 4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth ...

I am most weary of our passive, apathetic, indifferent, chicken, excuse-making, pantywaist, spineless, gutless, spiritless, Pollyanna, timid, cowardly, milquetoast, mealy-mouthed, politically-expedient, ineffective, self-aggrandizing, lukewarm, middle-of-the-road pastors who are disengaged from the reality of the world around them.

But then, I show restraint. One day I will tell you what I really think! I may need a big thesaurus. Okay, let me use a narrower brush. There are, in fact, more than a handful of Godly pastors speaking the Truth. I applaud them!

Honestly, it is, however, the church and the pastors who fail to bring God's word to bear on the issues facing America that exasperate me. They have been given a platform by God to speak on His behalf. It is high time they used it – or they will lose it!

I recently lamented to a friend in Wales, 'Sometimes, I am depressed with apathetic Christians, and frustrated with silent pastors. For my wife and I, the hardest thing is being around fellow Christians who haven't a clue what is going on around them, much less around the world.' Worse, most do not care! Sadly, many of the best church prayer meetings merely pray the MSM narrative to God. I want to scream!

We are blessed to live in Nation founded by God's people, on God's word, on God's principles, and I believe, by the very hand of God. (See: America's Christian Founding video and emails; soon, to be followed up with: America's Christian Foundation.)

As such, God cares about America and America is worth fighting for. The Church must take up the banner.

We have the "light," now we must pull it out from under the "bushel."

"We are in a spiritual war. Nothing else can account for the utter madness and evil we are seeing. It is time to PRAY that God would miraculously intervene. And it is time to attend a church that understands where we are. And leave any church that does not." - Eric Metaxas

Spiritual War

Too many fail to see the spiritual war playing out for the souls of men and the control of nations. The "prince of the power of the air" is seeking to rule and control the world.

Ephesians 2:2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

Our world is not wrestling with flesh and blood. We are not merely dealing with people that are either demon possessed or just plain given over to evil. We are dealing with principalities and demonic entities expressing themselves in human beings.

Ephesians 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

They are entrenched in the political arena: the executive, legislative and judicial branches of our government. They control the financial institutions, our medical regulatory agencies, media and Hollywood. They are the leaders in many countries.

Proverbs 27:12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

They are in our schools corrupting our children. They are in the courts putting our patriots in jail. They are in the hospitals killing our people, and refusing early and proper treatment, and in the labs creating viruses to depopulate us. I could go on.

“Evil is coming for all of us. Nobody is immune and nobody will come out unscathed. In the fight against powers and principalities, the weak ones will bend a knee and lie in order to ‘survive.’ The strong ones with morals who adhere to truth and trust God will persevere.” - James O’Keefe

However, while we are to expose the evil and oppose evil, we must recognize the source of the evil. We must know our enemy.

Psalm 94:16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

Ephesians 5:11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

It is demonic spiritual entities working through men. We must recognize who the enemy is. It is not men, but rather spiritual forces of darkness. Yet, we cannot lose heart and become bitter.

“Jesus Christ demands that there be not the slightest trace of resentment even suppressed in the head of a disciple when he meets with tyranny and injustice.” – Oswald Chambers

That is a tall order. The discerning sees the evil. It is all too easy to resent the person. But, we must love the person and hate the evil. They are not human beings with which we fight. Let that sink in. They are demonic entities manifest in human form.

John 7:24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

If this truly sinks in, we will run to God who is the only one that can defeat the devil. If our churches will turn to Jesus, we will have a fighting chance. Moreover, if our churches would unite, pray and take a bold stand on Truth we will win this battle. If we don’t our world is toast; apocalyptic, ‘walking dead’ kind of toast.

We have an obligation. As bearers of the “light” we must let it shine forth – we must speak the Truth to a lost and dying Land. We must take an unequivocal stand, while we still can.

“God will bless or curse this nation according to the course Christians take in politics.” - Charles Finney

Duty to Resist Evil

America is America, because for the boldness and courage of our Founding Colonial Pastors. They rightly divided God’s word to address the issues of the day.

They routinely preached on liberty, freedom, and obedience to God alone. Our early pulpits thundered – loudly. We need more of their ilk today – in this, our Second Revolution.

“Liberty is a legacy left us by Christ, the purchase of His blood.” –
Jonathan Parsons, Colonial Pastor

In a celebrated sermon by Jonathan Mayhew (1750), Mayhew reminded his parishioners of the long tradition in which the Christians are held to have not only a right, but a duty, to resist governments whenever they fail to secure the public good.

In doing so, Mayhew tacitly asserted the right of individual conscience to prevail over other social obligations and norms. His famous sermon was entitled, “Unlimited Submission and Non-Resistance to the Higher Powers.” It was widely reprinted and circulated. He was dressing down the silent church of his day while igniting a revolution fire in the pews.

His sermon became ‘the most famous sermon preached in Pre-Revolution America.’ John Adams called it the “catechism” for the America Revolution.

Mayhew addressed a perplexing question, how does one reconcile Paul’s command to Christians to “be subject” to civil powers (Romans 13) with their duty to “resist the Devil?” Mayhew preached decisively:

“[Romans 13] urges the duty of obedience from this topic of argument, that civil rulers, as they are supposed to fulfill the pleasure of God, are the ordinance of God. But how is this an argument for obedience to such rulers as do not perform the pleasure of God, by doing good; but the pleasure of the devil, by doing evil; and such as are not, therefore, God’s ministers, but the devil’s! ...

Common tyrants, and public oppressors, are not entitled to obedience from their subjects, by virtue of anything here laid down by the inspired apostle. ...

Once rulers begin to act contrary to their mandates and rule in their own interests—when they rob and ruin the public, instead of being guardians of its peace and welfare, (as Augustine taught), they immediately cease to be the ordinance and ministers of God, and no more deserve glorious character than common pirates and highway men.”

Published sermons during the Great Awakening, like that of Mayhew, became the paper that kindled the fires of the American Revolution. They were published and re-published throughout the colonies.

America desperately needs more Pastors with the Biblically-based discerning boldness of Colonial America. We are facing the same paradox of our colonists – to submit or resist. The Church must decide whom they will serve.

Joshua 24:15 And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve ...

Black Robbed Regiments

“For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven,” preached Rev. John Peter Muhlenberg, from the book of Ecclesiastes 3:1.

“In the language of the Holy Writ, there is a time for all things. There is a time to preach and a time to fight. And now is the time to fight!” – Rev. John Peter Gabriel Muhlenberg, 1776

He then pulled off his robe and took 200 men of God went to fight with George Washington. They were a force to be reckoned with.

America has swept itself clean of God and His Word. As such demons are rushing in to fill the spiritual void. We need pastors and churches to take the same stand today as our colonial pastors. A united Church cannot be defeated.
